

Discover

SCULPTURE OUTDOORS

in Broome County!

a handy reference map
brought to you by

BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Art History
Department

BINGHAMTON (DOWNTOWN)

Robert Aitken,
The Skirmisher, 1924
Washington St. Bridge,
along North Shore Drive

BCK Architects,
ACA Memorial, 2013
Corner of East Clinton & Front Street

Masao Kinoshita,
I Beam, 1972
38-60 Hawley Street,
at entrance of NY State Office Building

Louise Nevelson,
Dawn's Column, 1970/73
38-60 Hawley Street,
on 2nd level courtyard,
outside Binghamton City Hall Gallery

Allen George Newman,
Daniel S. Dickinson, 1924
92 Court Street
Broome County Court House

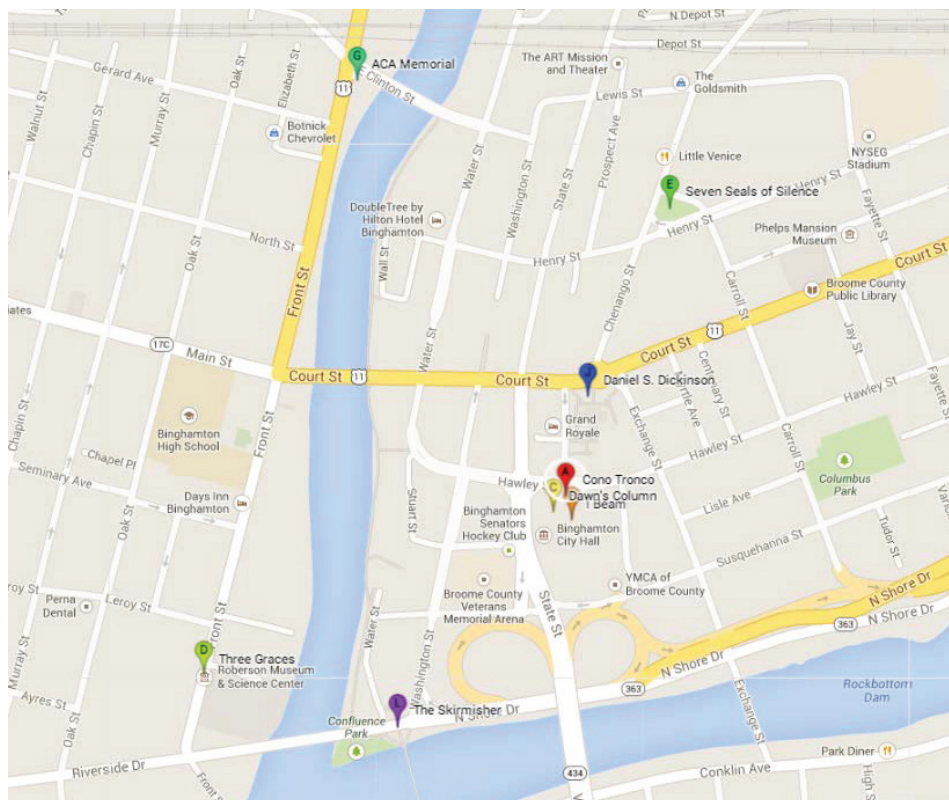

Arnaldo Pomodoro,
Cono Tronco, 1973
38-60 Hawley Street,
at North end of parking lot
near Hawley Street

Ed Wilson,
Seven Seals of Silence, 1968
Intersection of Chenango & Henry Street
Kennedy Park

William Zorach,
Three Graces, 1973
30 Front Street,
Roberson Museum

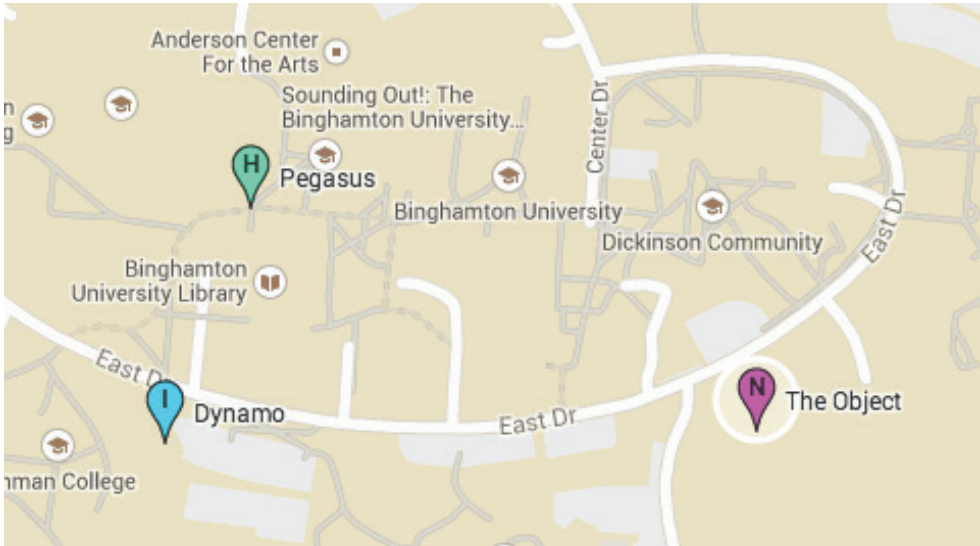

BINGHAMTON UNIVERSITY (4400 Vestal Parkway E. Vestal, NY)

 Robert Bertoia,
Pegasus, 1987.
Campus Spine,
near Library Tower

 Penfield Falo,
Dynamo, 1973,
East side of Rockefeller Collegiate Center

 Don Walford,
The Object, 1967,
Dickinson Community

BROOME COMMUNITY COLLEGE

 Ed Haugevik,
Quatrain, 1986
907 Upper Front Street
in between the Business and Wales Building

ENDICOTT (IN THE 913-1003 MAIN STREET E. AREA)

 Charles Keck,
George F. Johnson Monument, 1951
Main Street
near Union-Endicott High School

 Giuseppe Moretti,
Workers Memorial, 1920,
donated by George F. Johnson
Main Street
near Endicott Police Station

This brochure is a result of research by Binghamton University art history students about 14 often mysteriously unidentified public sculptures with major artistic & historic significance.

This presentation completes a yearlong collaboration between BCAC, Professor Kevin Hatch, and Binghamton University's Art History Department. Enjoy this free reference map to the 14 featured sculptures available as you continue your First Friday Art Walk - May 2, 2014

For more information on outdoor sculpture and the arts in Broome County visit BroomeArts.org